"When the road of life's journey brought Mildred and me to the greater Greensboro area, we were welcomed into a wonderfully loving church family at the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro. In addition to the love, this family has provided for a great worship opportunity and spiritual growth. We also see the service opportunities for the First Presbyterian Church to the needs of Greensboro and Greene County. Thus, it is of great importance to us that this Church continue to exist in an adequately sufficient form. For that reason, we are very pleased to leave a personal faith legacy to the Legacy Funds Ministry of the Church."

Bill was born in Greensboro and raised in the First Presbyterian Church of Greensboro. He always knew and loved God. The Church family and Church buildings were very important to him. He spent many hours building, preserving, and maintaining the Church. He also taught and served God and Church on Presbytery committees. Bill sat in the same pew all his life, listened to many sermons, taught many lessons, served God as the Church had taught him, and passed all he learned to his children. He was greatly blessed by God and believed, "It is essential that the Church continue to do God's work and to serve and honor our Lord and Savior."
